CELLULAR ANALYSIS AND REINFORMATION

Cellular Analysis and Reinforcement is a method of detection, interpretation, and correction of energetic disturbances.

It combines ancient knowledge with contemporary methods.

It enables you to rediscover your true self.

Listen, your cells are talking to you...

COMPLEMENTARITY

A method that respects the human being in his/her entirety.

ARC is a therapeutic method which is complementary to other disciplines, such as : osteopathy, staturology, allopathy, homeopathy, acupuncture, psychology, relaxation, massages and others.

It is a tool intended for everyone from 0 to 99 years who seeks fulfillment and who is also willing to invest him/herself personally in this work of transformation.

ARC provides the possibility to delve into past experiences, which in turn allows for evolution towards a new perception of yourself and your capabilities.

The origin of the method

ARC was conceived by Michel Larroche, Doctor in medicine, homeopath and acupuncturist, trained in several energetic methodologies. In addition to his background in biology and theoretical physics, he used his sound knowledge of psychotherapy to develop ARC. He is the author of a very explicit and easy-to-understand book in French: ...ET SI MES CELLULES SAVAIENT APPRENDRE? Dr. Michel Larroche, Ed. Guy Trédaniel.

Let's act together...

HOW ?

How it works

Each session consists of 3 parts:

Reading and interpretation of the underlying causes responsible for disharmony between the body and the mind, based on a well-established method.

The aim is indeed to decipher the language of the body and psyche, in order to understand their complaints, their pains, their messages, as well as the events of our life - past and present - that are manifested through inappropriate habits and behavior. The older and the deeper the traumas are, the more they influence our life and impose repetitive patterns on us. Our cells do remember, and our body can pay the price through dysfunction or even ailments.

And, once the mind has understood, the body may not follow right away.

In conjunction with these readings, an investigation of complementary remedies that support the healing process is carried out.

The reinformation and reharmonisation of the 4 following vibratory levels: physical, emotional, mental, and unconscious, to allow for the removal of the blocks, followed by treatment of the energy leaks with one or several tuning forks.

A time of verbal exchange will enable you to increase your awareness as well as relate the information identified during the session to real-life situations.

At the heart of cellular memory...

WITH WHAT ?

The tools

You are - and always will be - the major factor in your own healing. However, ARC will make this easier for you with the following tools:

Your pulse

Frequency filters

Each organic, psychological, or unconscious pathological disturbance will express itself through either blocks or leaks of energy from the body; placing a series of adequate filters, selected according to a well-established method, will stem the leaks and allow for a progressive search back to the underlying cause.

The reflex zone of the ear

Like a dashboard, the ear signals the location of the organic and energetic leaks of the body.

The trace element

Identifying the trace element which indicates one of the underlying causes of the disorder.

The tuning forks

Correction of the altered energy by using tuning forks. (chromatic scale).

Complementary remedies, such as ...

- Homeopathy
- The 38 original flower remedies of the Dr. Edward Bach
- Herbal medicine
- Spagyry

For your transformation and fulfillment.

WHY ?

The aim of the method

The function of ARC is to put the key in the lock, open the door, and show you what's there... if you so desire.

If indeed you feel in a state of unease, this means that, at a certain point in time, a significant event or incident occurred which led to unbalance. Daily life is such that you had to carry on, but your cells remember and speak to you.

Thanks to ARC, you will be able to identify and then understand the causes of the disharmony between your body and your mind and remedy to the ailment at its source.

There is a path which is yours alone and that only you will have to follow...

GOOD TO KNOW:

When? How much?

One must keep in mind that the method provides a means of personal soul-searching and that the work to be done sometimes deals with behavior patterns that are well-rooted in the past.

Depending on one's needs, the interval between two sessions varies from one to six months, on a more or less intense basis. The price of a session is fr. 140.-

During this course, as in everyday life, we go through some periods that are more turbulent than others. Long-forgotten former symptoms may therefore reappear but, as it is an elimination process, this will be followed by an overall improvement, accompanied by an increasing feeling of well-being. Please feel free to get in touch whenever necessary.
